

A book log is a great place to keep track of your adventures in reading. It's a way to see your reading accomplishments over the year, and a handy reminder of what books and authors you enjoyed most.

I • Us • All

We are each like a drop of water splashing into a pond. Our actions cause concentric ripples of actions. A helping hand from one person can ripple through their relationships to the relationships of others, and so on; until the world has changed. The actions of the individual may seem insignificant, but can alter the world.

REVIEW ONLY

I: Every positive action begins with Self (I), when we discover our ability to effect change and take the initiative to act.

Us: Our impact grows through our Relationships (Us), where we find encouragement as well as challenges.

All: Our actions make the ultimate difference for the World (All) around us, where we realize our greatest potential and make a lasting difference.

Look for the I, Us, and All symbols in your planner and supplements. They mark sections and ideas to help make positive ripples in your self, relationships, and world.

“Literature is my Utopia. Here I am not disfranchised. No barrier of the senses shuts me out from the sweet, gracious discourse of my book friends. They talk to me without embarrassment or awkwardness.”
