

CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER

Prayer beads, meditation time and the ritual of repetitive prayers are common to many religions. For Catholics, one of the oldest traditions is praying the rosary, often done while holding rosary beads and moving from bead to bead after each prayer.

This structured prayer includes the Apostle’s Creed, Hail Mary, Glory Be and Our Father, as well as contemplation of one of four sets of mysteries of the rosary, which chronicle events from the New Testament.

TIME FOR MEDITATION, FOCUS – For those saying the rosary, the repetitive prayer offers an opportunity for meditation, focus and devotion, whether prayed alone, with classmates or your family, at a funeral, in a classroom or at home.

For individuals, praying the rosary can be a time to step outside the routine, a few minutes of reflection and an opportunity to focus on your faith.

CONNECTING FAMILIES, GROUPS – Some families begin a long car drive by saying the rosary. Others use this form of prayer during special times of the year, to bring the family together.

For groups, the rosary can formalize a gathering time, helping to create connections, unity and peace.
