Character In Action

You're alone in a classroom and you see the answers to an upcoming test on the teacher's desk. There is no way you will get caught if you look at them. You could "ace" the test if you put some of the answers on your paper. What do you do?

Thinking carefully about your answer to this question indicates whether or not you have integrity.

If you do the right thing and don't look at the test – you are of high integrity.

If you look at the answers so you can do well on the test, you are of low integrity.

- What does your answer say about your character?
- What would you do if you walked in on another student who was snooping for the answers?
- Is it more important to win the game or ace the test? Or is it more important to play fairly and not cheat?
- What have you done today to show your integrity?
