

Living in faith

A CATHOLIC STUDENT'S GUIDE TO LIFE-LONG LEARNING

ANCESTORS OFFER GUIDANCE

Long after a loved one has passed on, we continue to benefit from the gifts of their lives.

While an inheritance or trust fund might seem like the best legacy, the most valuable gifts are intangible—a grandmother's thoughtfulness, a grandfather's gift of time, an uncle's storytelling, an aunt's interest in young ones.

These are treasures you'll always carry in your heart, memories that will come back to you throughout your lives. Perhaps a memory will comfort you in a difficult time, inspire you to keep trying at something as you saw that person do, or offer a lesson in how to live. Understanding their struggles and accomplishments opens doors for your own growth and success.

REVIEW ONLY

School Gatebooks
ALL SOULS DAY

November 2 each year is All Souls' Day, a day the Catholic Church sets aside to remember those who have died.

DO NOT SUBMIT FOR PRINT

"We inherit from our ancestors gifts so often taken for granted. Each of us contains within it the gift of a soul."
—Edward Taylor

HONORING YOUR ANCESTORS

Who from your family will you honor on All Souls Day?

---

---

---

What guiding lights did you receive from these family members?

---

---

---