

ENJOY YOUR PRESENTS

Perhaps you've lost a grandmother, great aunt or family friend who taught you to plant zinnias, make special biscuits, catch trout or play baseball.

Maybe their teaching was indirect—demonstrated in their good cheer, generosity or love of children.

Even though you no longer see them, you carry those lessons in your heart today. As time goes on, you'll probably become aware of other things you learned from them, too.

The influence of the Holy Spirit in your life is similar and even more profound.

The third person of the Trinity, with the Father and the Son, the divine essence of the Holy Spirit is unseen. But the Holy Spirit's gifts to you are here for the believing. And along with what are known as the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit are a dozen bountiful fruits to enrich your life.

REVIEW ONLY

School Datebooks

"If Christ is head of the Church, the Holy Spirit is her soul."
— Pope Leo XII

GIFTS FROM
ELDERS — Think about the elders in your family, neighborhood or church and their lessons, both spoken and those given by example.

Whose presence do you still feel in your life today even though he or she is no longer here?

DO NOT SUBMIT FOR PRINT

What have you learned from these elders that you'll always carry in your heart?

How do their gifts enhance your life today?

holy spirit